Vikki Burke Vikki was born again and delivered from a life of violence and abuse in 1971. That same year she met Dennis, and they were married on June 23, 1973. They began in ministry as youth pastors in Southern California where they received tremendous insight into the work of the local church.

In 1976, they moved to Ft. Worth, Texas, to work with Kenneth Copeland Ministries. Vikki worked with KCM for three years before entering full-time traveling ministry with her husband. Many of Vikki's articles have been published in the Believer's Voice of Victory magazine.

Vikki Burke has ministered on television, radio, in women's conferences, churches, and marriage seminars all across American and from Australia to Japan, and Russia to New Zealand. Her desire is that people enjoy the life of freedom that God originally intended.

Vikki has authored several Christian books including Help! It's Dangerous Out Here, Destiny Held Hostage, Some Days You Dance, Aim Your Child Like an Arrow and Transforming A Distorted Self-Image. She regularly receives testimonies on how her daily devotional, Enriching Life Daily, has inspired people worldwide. Vikki is committed to influencing God's people through the power of God's Word.
